URBAN GAMES

NO NEED

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING
DIFFERENT TO DO THIS SUMMER HOLIDAY?

Urban Games is Telford & Wrekin Council's free programme of sports for kids, aged eight to 16, and wildlife activities for little ones, all taking place in a supervised space. It's a great chance for children to have fun and learn new skills.

There really is something for everyone and with the Paris Olympics taking place this summer, children can get in on the action by having a go at archery, fencing, football, wrestling and table tennis.

All activities are run by qualified professionals at locations across the borough.

Sessions are free to attend funded by the council's Safer & Stronger Communities programme with support from the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Government's Levelling Up Fund.
